DESCRIPTION

Communication is a subject that is a benefit to everyone, no matter what field he or she plans to enter. Even the research scientist, who spends most of his or her time in a laboratory, is expected to give papers and present seminars. Others whose work is people-oriented fields will find a good background in communication to be invaluable to success. The Communication degree is applicable to a variety of career paths including but not limited to business, law and education.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Communication majors are frequently employed in areas such as:

Teacher/professor	Sales
Business management	Theatre
Advertising and marketing	Trial attorney
Broadcast media	Public relations

COURSE SEQUENCE BY TERM

The following is the suggested course sequence by term. Please keep in mind:

- The course sequence is laid out by suggested term and may be affected when students enter the program at different times of the year.
- Initial course placement is determined by current district placement measures and/or completion of 100-200 level course and/or program requirements.
- Students should meet with an academic advisor about any concerns that may affect course enrollment.
- This guide includes course suggestions for students undecided on where they plan to transfer. If you know where you are transferring to for your bachelor's, follow that institution's transfer requirements.
