DESCRIPTION

To understand the present and prepare for the future, we must understand the past. The study of history provides a solid foundation of knowledge, which equips us to better comprehend our world. The History Department offers students a wide range of opportunities to study in areas as diverse as American History, European History, World History, and the History of Religion, as well as the histories of Latin America, Asia, Africa and the Middle East.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

A variety of careers are open to students who graduate with a bachelor's degree in history including:

Teacher	Historical preservationist
Archivist	Law
News analyst	Government
Journalist	Foreign Service
Museum curator	Historical preservationist

COURSE SEQUENCE BY TERM

The following is the suggested course sequence by term. Please keep in mind:

- The course sequence is laid out by suggested term and may be affected when students enter the program at different times of the year.
- Initial course placement is determined by current district placement measures and/or completion of 100-200 level course and/or program requirements.
- Students should meet with an academic advisor about any concerns that may affect course enrollment.
- This guide includes course suggestions for students undecided on where they plan to transfer. If you know where you are transferring to for your bachelor's, follow that institution's transfer requirements.
