DESCRIPTION

Theatre is a subject that is a benefit to everyone, no matter what field he or she plans to enter. Even the research scientist, who spends most of his or her time in a laboratory, is expected to give papers and present seminars. Others who work in people-oriented fields will find a good background in theatre to be invaluable to success. Theatre majors are frequently employed in the broadcast media, and they often continue for further training in drama.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Theatre majors are frequently employed in areas such as:

| | |
|---------------------------|-------------------------|
| Acting | Announcing |
| Stage and lighting design | Producing |
| Education | Directing |
| Pre-law | Business Administration |
| Marketing | Public Relations |
| Costume design | |

Career Information for Theatre Majors

COURSE SEQUENCE BY TERM

The following is the suggested course sequence by term. Please keep in mind:

- The course sequence is laid out by suggested term and may be affected when students enter the program at different times of the year.
- Initial course placement is determined by current district placement measures and/or completion of 100-200 level course and/or program requirements.
- Students should meet with an academic advisor about any concerns that may affect course enrollment.
- This guide includes course suggestions for students undecided on where they plan to transfer. If you know where you are transferring to for your bachelor's, follow that institution's transfer requirements.
