

Consumer Information Reporting Full-time Undergraduate Student Characteristics

This report contains the demographic makeup of the full-time undergraduate student body at Southwestern Illinois College as reported in the Fall 2022 Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) Enrollment Survey. It also contains the percentage of first-time, full-time undergraduate students who attend SWIC during the 2021 – 2022 academic year who received a Pell Grant.

Percent of full-time undergraduate students by male or female

Percent of full-time undergraduate students who are female	54%
Percent of full-time undergraduate students who are male	46%

Percent of full-time undergraduate students by race or ethnicity

American Indian or Alaska Native	0%
Asian	1%
Black or African American	19%
Hispanic/Latino	6%
Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander	0%
White	62%
Two or More Races	7%
Race and Ethnicity Unknown	4%
US Nonresident	1%

Federal Pell Grant Recipients

Percentage of 2021 – 2022 first-time, full-time, students receiving Pell Grants as reported in the IPEDS Student Financial Aid Component	34%
--	-----