- a) The budgets provided above are estimates based on 15 credit hours per semester, 30 total credit hours for Fall and Spring. Budgets are reduced if enrollment is part time or less than half time. Actual tuition and fee costs are calculated on student's enrolled credit hours each semester.
- b) Direct costs incurred through Southwestern Illinois College include tuition, fees, and select books and supplies*.
- c) Books, supplies, and course fees will vary based on the specific courses that students are taking. Students should consult the Class Schedule and billing statements found in eSTORM for specific costs.
- d) Students with aviation fees that exceed the standard fee amount are eligible for a budget increase.
- e) The student's cost of attendance budget is the maximum financial aid assistance a student can receive. Financial aid includes grants, loans, work study, scholarships, and tuition waivers. Students are notified of their financial aid eligibility through their SWIC student e-mail.
