

Consumer Information Reporting Full-time Undergraduate Student Characteristics

This report contains the demographic makeup of the full-time undergraduate student body at Southwestern Illinois College as reported in the Fall 2025 Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) Enrollment Survey. It also contains the percentage of first-time, full-time undergraduate students who attend SWIC during the 2024 – 2025 academic year who received a Pell Grant.

Percent of full-time undergraduate students by male or female

Percent of full-time undergraduate students who are female	56%
Percent of full-time undergraduate students who are male	34%

Percent of full-time undergraduate students by race or ethnicity

American Indian or Alaska Native	0%
Asian	1%
Black or African American	22%
Hispanic/Latino	9%
Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander	0%
White	58%
Two or More Races	6%
Race and Ethnicity Unknown	4%
US Nonresident	0%

Federal Pell Grant Recipients

Percentage of 2024 – 2025 first-time, full-time, students receiving Pell Grants as reported in the IPEDS Student Financial Aid Component	59%
--	-----